Our team is composed of highly qualified litigators who are constantly updating their knowledge through professional training and legal forums to deliver top-tier, modern legal services.

Administrative Litigation

We work closely with our clients to resolve disputes that arise in the normal course of business operations, representing their interests before public authorities. Our deep understanding of administrative procedures and strategic litigation skills have led to favorable outcomes in high-profile cases.

Civil and Commercial Litigation

Our firm has successfully handled complex civil and commercial litigation for both national and international clients. We regularly collaborate with law firms in the United States and Europe to litigate matters in Panamanian courts under the direction of multinational clients. This long-standing collaborative practice has built lasting relationships and allowed us to deliver consistently favorable outcomes in sophisticated disputes. We also have strong experience in cases involving commercial contracts, civil liability, and investment recovery. Additionally, we represent consumers in real estate purchase disputes and other high-value commercial conflicts.

Labor Litigation

We represent well-known multinational corporations in the day-to-day handling of labor disputes, including both individual and collective claims. With a solid understanding of cross-border IP law, we provide efficient, comprehensive legal solutions for the protection of valuable intangible assets.

Our firm has extensive experience in the recognition and enforcement of foreign court judgments and international arbitral awards under Panamanian law.
